Computed similarities using different measures between trajectory 1 to all other trajectories